SHREWD DETECTIVE WORK BY ROTTLER LANDS NEGRO BAD MAN.

Harry Johnson, Wanted in Harrisburg, is Trapped by Decoy Letter Sent by Officer.

THRILLING CAPTURE IS MADE

Man Had a Gun But Chief Drew Firet and Gut Man This Morning-Robert Fruman Captured For Gotting Registered Mail Addressed to Another.

Chief of Police Rottler, in one fell swoop, following some unusually clev-er detective work, handed two offenders in the corough tockup this morning, one of whom is wanted in Harrisburg on a charge of felonious assault and which will result in murder.

Herry Johnson is the man wanted the liarrisburg authorities while Robert Odell Framen will have to maswer charges of securing mail un-der false pretense. Both prisoners tie negroe

Johnson then disappeared, but notices requesting his apprehension were sent broadcast throughout this and adjoining States. The victim will die. Yesterday afternon Chief Rottion received a letter from Chief Rottion at the home of Mrs. Margaret Johnson, 298 Prospect street. A telophone message later in the afternoon amounted that Johnson was antoubtedly on his way to Connelisyille.

The Chief immediately wrote a decoy letter to Johnson and had it registered. A notice was left at the Johnson bone this morning. After learning the notice had been delivered, Chief Rottler, accompanied by Officers Lowe and Ruill, went to the Prospect street house.

Upon demanding admittance to the home, the Chief heard is a natural registered.

Upon demanding admittance to the home, the Chief heard a sourry of feet up the stelrs. He brushed part the lad who opened the door and broke into a room at the lead of the steps, finding his quarry holding a .38 catibre bine steel rovolver in his hand. The Chief was too quick for the negro and had him covered before he could fire. While Officers P. M. Rulli guarded the roar door, Officer

Lowe rushed the tear door, Officer Lowe rushed up the stairs after the Chief and placed the handcuffs on the prisoner.

It was later learned that Friman had some to the postoffice and represented himself to be Johnson. He secured the decay letter sent by the Chief. Chief Rottler arreated Fruman in South Pittsburg street as the negro was leaving the postoffice. The sill in the field. The wounded reaching to make the constant of the telegram.

Calls Upon Ilim to Prove Ilia Point

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.—(Special,) Reaffirming his compilete confidence in Dr. Cook, Roar Admiral W. S. Schley, retired, has called publicly upon Commander Peary to submit his proofs that he reached the North Pole to some scientific body other than the National Geographic Society. This, the admiral declares, should be done at once in the interests of justice and to establish beyond question the chains of Peary. The admiral believes that the same body which threw out and repudlated Cook's data should be permitted to pass upon the data submitted by Peary to the geographic society.

CUSTOM TRADE HERE SUFFERS

Demand For Coal Exceeds the Present Supply and Consumers May Suffer if the Situation is Not Quickly Remedied.

Owing to a shortage of both cars and motive power on the Connells-ville division of the Bultimore & Ohio ruilroad a serious coal shortage is inenaced. Inability to secure sufficient cars has caused several works, especially along the Fairmont branch, to suspend operations. Unless the situation changes ma-terially during the next few days there is serious danger of a coal fun-ine in Councilsville. Custom dealers who depend upon mines out of town for their supply are at their wits' ends attempting to meet the ever increas-ing demand for coal. If the cold

Atthough there has been a shortage of cars for some weeks pass, the situation only became serious of late. Scores of wagons drove to the Baltimore 5. Only freight dept weeks weeken. more & Ohio freight denot vesterday and today, expecting to find several cars of coal being unleaded. To their surprise there wasn't a single car on the siding.

The shortage of cars is not the only trouble the Baltimore & Otto is having at this time. There is also a shortage of motive power. An official of the read is quoted as saying that for the past day or two practically all efforts to move slow freight have been abandoned in order that the passenger and through freights can be rushed through. The rush of Christmas traf-fic has made it imperative that these trains be given the right of way over all others.

Tomorrow is the last day. We announce it not without a feeling of genuine regret. We've made hundreds of new friends, we convinced practically every woman in Connellsville that "Feldstein's sell apparel cheaper than anyone else." But we can't keep up this pace any longer. We've sacrificed on every garment we sold, thousands of dollars in all, but we've accomplished our purpose. We've reduced our stock. THE COUNTY INSTITUTE
NOT A POLITICAL CLUB.
The object of the Faysite County Teachers' Institute is to improve the methods of Fayette county teachers. Under no other circumstances would the School Directors of the county be justified in allowing teachers compen-sation for attending the institute. The institute professes to be a training school for teachers, and only as such is it entitled to any share of the public funds through any channel whatso-

A BUSY CHRISTMAS WEEK AT DUNN'S

Avoid the afternoon rush and jam as far as possible. We suggest you do your buying from 8 to 11 A. M., when you will be sure of prompt attention. This store open evenings until Christmas.

This week will finish the holiday business. Even at this late date we feel safe in saying that the majority of Christmas buying is yet to be done. Notwithstanding the unusual activity of this itore, stocks have been kept in gòod shape and selection is good.. Some stocks have been replenished, particularly the handkerchief stock which is now undoubtedly the rarest collection being shown in this section. We have made a special effort to gather together a wide assortment of useful gifts of an expensive and inexpensive nature and feel that we have well succeeded. We call attention to our lines of Holiday Jewelry which is unusually large—everything being put up in neat boxes for mailing or for gifts. Our line of Necwear-ruches, jabots, stock and coat collars, Dutch collars, bows, Gibson collars, etc., all put up in Christmas boxes appropriate for giving, deserves mention. Our Christmas exhibits are so complete that it will be to your own best interests to make this store your headquarters for Christmas buying.

Orde slept that hight at the booms.

Orde slept that hight at the booms. The water by morning had crept so fur up the plues that there began to be danger that it would overflow their tops. In that case, of course, the logs in the booms would also run out.

Orde set a crew of men to raising the height of the piling by tying logs firmly to the boiled timbers atop. This would take care of an exten two feet of water, a two feet beyond all provious records. Another crew stroked the fifteen inch manifa calles across the field of logs in order to segregate them into several units of meas.

About twe house later the pile driver moved up. The swing was opened,

About twe hours inter the pile driver moved up. The swing was opened, and the men began to drive clumps of piles in such a position as to strongthen the swing when the inter should be shut. It was a slow job. Each pile had to be taken from the raft at the stem of the score, erected in the "carrier." and pounded into place by the heavy hammer raised and let drop in the derrick at the bow.

Long before the task was finished the logs in the temporary booms had begin to slide atop one another, to cross and tangle, until at last the rivor bed inside the booms was filled with a iam of formidable dimensions. From beneath it the water boiled in eddles. Orde, looking at it, roused bimsoit to sudden nettrity.

"Get a move on," he savised Cap-tain Aspinwall of the driver. "If that fam breaks on its we want to be ready, and it it don't break before you get this wing strengthened maybe we can hold her where she is. There's no earthly doubt that those boom piles

The driver's crew thoored desponately, beliefing the plies late the carriage, tripping the heavy hammer, binding feverishly the clumps of plies together by means of cobles.

Two of the clumps had been placed and bound when suddenly with a con-and bound when suddenly, with a coar, the upper booms gave way, projecting their logs upon the opening and the driver.

The half-dozen members of the crew were scattered by the winds of a panic Two or three dung themselves on their faces; one leaped into the river. Immi-nent destruction seemed upon them. Tom North, at the winch that operated the arm of the swing, however, retained his presence of mind. At the first sag outward of the boom piles he erst sag outward of the boom pites he set in operation the machinery that closed the gate. Clumsy and slow as was his mechanism, he nevertheless succeeded in getting the long arm started. The logs, rushing in back of it, hurried it shut. Immediately they It, hurried it shut. Immediately they jummed again and heaped up in a formidable tangle bohind the barrier. Tom North, his little black pipe between his teeth, atood calm, the lever of his winch in his hand. A short three feet from the spot on which he stood the first saw log of the many that might have overwhelmed him thrust forward its ugly head. The wash of the water lifted the huge pile driver bodily and deposited it with a crash half on the bank and half in the water.
